

How does Standardisation facilitate the innovative rail system of tomorrow?

Paris – 6th NOVEMBER 2018
UIC Headquarters

13h45-13h55	Welcome and Opening statement	Laurent Schmitt: Chairman UIC Standardisation Platform, SNCF Jean-Pierre Loubinoux, Director General, UIC
Info: Speakers presentations: 20 minutes presentation, 10 minutes for questions. English language only
13h55-14h10	The UIC's standardisation role – process and people	Simon Fletcher: Director, Standards and Coordinator, Europe, UIC
14h10-14h25	Work Programme - Migration strategy and correlation, publication dates	Célia Levy: Head of Standards Programming, UIC
14h25-14h40	Changes to the UIC Code	Hélène Cambreleng: Head of ETF (the publishing team), UIC
14h40-14h50	The UIC's Guidelines for Standardisation, a quality approach	Célia Levy: Head of Standards Programming, UIC
14h50-15h00	Editorial Guidelines for the production of IRS – M1	Hélène Cambreleng: Head of ETF (the publishing team) UIC
15h00-15h30	How Standardisation support and boost the digital revolution and vice versa	Stephane Mouille : President of Eurosmart (TBC)
15h30 – 15h45	Coffee Break
15h45-16h15	The importance of standards in predictive maintenance	Tim Flower: Professional Head of Maintenance, Network Rail
16h15-16h45	Research results into standards enabling innovation	Giorgio Travaini: Executive Director/ Head of Research and Innovation, Shift2Rail
16h45-17h15	How European Norms are supporting an innovative railway sector	Thierry Legrand, Customer Service Specialist, CEN, CENELEC (TBC)
17h15-17h30	Conclusions	Laurent Schmitt: Chairman UIC Standardisation Platform, SNCF Simon Fletcher: Director, Standards and Coordinator, Europe, UIC
17H30 – 18H30	Networking cocktail	